

Private Client

Our private client practice is one of the leading private client teams in the country, advising clients on a broad range of issues including property, tax and trusts, wealth management, wills and probate, and separation and divorce. A specialist disputes unit advises on disputes relating to inheritance, probate and trusts.

Cases are managed at partner level and benefit from all the advantages a large practice can bring coupled with the attention of a dedicated adviser offering a service tailored to individual special requirements.
